OVERVIEW

Does your camper crave adventure and have a passion for the sea? Voyager Camp, designed for 7th-12th graders, is the ultimate week for those who dream of mastering the waves! Throughout the week, campers will take the helm of Topaz Uno Plus sailboats, honing their sailing skills with guidance from our experienced instructors. Whether they're steering through the wind or navigating open waters, each day is packed with challenges that will boost their confidence and sharpen their sailing techniques, all against the stunning backdrop of Camp Albemarle's coastline.

But Voyager Camp isn't just about sailing—it's about growing spiritually through meaningful, faith-filled moments in the great outdoors. Each day starts with Morning Watch, where campers reflect on a thought-provoking message to carry with them throughout the day. In Bible Study, campers dive into scripture, exploring lessons that inspire their faith journey. Vespers offers a peaceful evening of worship and reflection, where our staff or a local pastor shares deeper spiritual insights. At the close of the day, campers gather for Devotions, providing a space for thoughtful discussion and personal growth.

And the excitement doesn't stop on the water! Voyager Camp is packed with high-energy activities that will thrill and challenge campers. They'll soar on the giant swing, navigate the low ropes course, hit the bullseye in archery, and unleash their creativity with arts and crafts. Campers can also scale new heights in tree climbing, splash into the pool, and show off their talents during the ever-popular skit night!

Campers are organized into family groups, typically consisting of 5 boys and 5 girls, with both male and female counselors. These close-knit groups take on the week's adventures together, creating deep bonds through shared experiences and teamwork. Campers are housed in platform tents or off-site pitched tents, with groups arranged by age and cabinmate preferences to ensure everyone feels comfortable and supported.

Voyager Camp is a one-of-a-kind experience that blends the thrill of sailing with personal and spiritual growth. Campers will leave with newfound sailing expertise, deeper friendships, and a strengthened faith. It's the perfect mix of adventure and reflection—an unforgettable week that will inspire and excite!
